

Thanksgiving Special Touch

Denise Chavez, Carol Ray and Joseph Zappoli prepare the outreach for clients.

By Diane Emeott
 Clients lined up before 10 a.m. Tuesday outside Gateway Community Outreach

Publix bakery bread and a dessert, as well as celery, green beans, a fresh pineapple, cantaloupe melon and yucca.

"We have 625 signed up today. It might be more, you never know," said Gateway Founder/CEO/President Carol Ray of the Thanksgiving Outreach on Nov. 22. Ray started the outreach in 1995 with a single can of corn.

"An anonymous man comes every year to donate turkeys, and we purchase the rest," she added.
